

Jordan Moozy

Jordan MoOzy is the embodiment of a Gen Z Afropolitan. The multi-dimensional singer, songwriter and producer was born in Botswana to Zimbabwean parents. His upbringing and travels have taken him across Southern Africa, and these influences have shaped his musical sound and worldview. His music is a layered, multilingual blend of R&B, Pop, Alte, Highlife and Hip Hop that is seeping with influences that span across borders and decades.

Jordan MoOzy's eclectic sound is reflected in his sense of style and creative direction. Jordan represents a new sound and generation finding novel and creative ways to explore self-expression that is impossible to ignore Jordan has already secured awards for Best RnB and Best Collaboration at the Yarona FM Awards (2021). He was also nominated for Best Newcomer and Best R&B at the same awards.

In 2022 Jordan released his debut EP titled De'Grace which was a critically acclaimed release that had songs like Ginja and Air which displayed his artistic prowess and gained him a legion of fans. Jordan's talent caught the attention of Point Black who are now working with him.

Jordan MoOzy is also a talented and skilled live performer able to play a number of instruments to deliver both acoustic and full-band performances.

“
I make music for people who believe in themselves and to encourage those who don't. To embrace And learn to love who they are and freely explore the potential of the best version of Their individuality.
”

epk

 Spotify  Apple Music

 audiomack

 Book Jordan Moozy

www.jordanmoozy.com